

euronews presents “I Talk”, a new interactive magazine driven by Alex Taylor

Alex Taylor, the eminent European affairs journalist, launches "I Talk", a new face-to-face debate on current events linking European citizens to opinion leaders, produced by euronews.

LYON, FRANCE - April 15th 2011 – I Talk is a new dynamic interview programme presented by Alex Taylor, the well-known and respected European journalist, in a virtual studio. Alex hosts a face-to-face interview, in an informative and informal style, and in a 3D environment, offering a new dimension to the top stories on euronews.

The viewers will enjoy the multimedia format of the programme, interacting via videos posted on euronews.net and reports collected by correspondents. Opinion polls, statistics and unexpected items will enrich the debate.

Alex Taylor will put viewers' questions to politicians, intellectuals, artists, sports personalities, CEO's and business leaders who help shape world opinion.

I Talk is a bi-monthly 8' programme broadcast throughout the week, edited in the 10 linguistic services of the channel.

This week: an interview with the ISS* crew, in duplex from space, celebrating Yuri Gagarin's 50th anniversary of the first man in space

*International Space Station

On air from Friday 15th April at 20:45pm CET Paris - 19:45pm London - 22:45pm Moscow – 14:45pm New York.

Next issue: Thursday 21st April, 5th, 19th May, 2nd June... and every second week thereafter.

Available in catch-up on euronews.net

« I Talk » is on-air alternately with « The Network », Chris Burns' new talk-show on euronews.

About Alex Taylor

Alex Taylor is “Mr. Europe” in the French media. Originally from the UK he has been living in France since 1980 and for the last six years also in Berlin. For over 25 years he has produced and presented TV and radio news programmes about Europe, mainly in France but also in the UK and Germany. He was also the Programme Director of the French section of Radio France Internationale (1996 – 2000) ...

For further information, please contact:

Grégoire de Rubiana
Director of External Relations
e derubiana@euronews.net

or

Lydie Bonvallet
Head of Press and Public Relations
t +33 (0)4 72 18 80 56

www.euronews.net / www.nocommenttv.com